

Business Strategies for Growth: Fewer, Bigger, Bolder

Programs in collaboration with

Northwestern
Kellogg
School of Management

8 Weeks

Learning Outcomes

- Determine current position and opportunities for your organization.
- Search for the right growth opportunities identify and empower your high-potential talent and teams.
- Capture best practices and implement them to scale your organization.
- Articulate personal, team, and organizational purposes using framework and models.

Modules

- Growth strategy overview
- Discovery—search for growth
- Strategy and rallying cry—picking your bets and rousing the troops
- People—unleash potential
- Execution, organization, and metrics
- Bringing it all together

About Emeritus

Emeritus collaborates with more than 80 top-ranked business schools, including Harvard, MIT, Wharton, INSEAD, London Business School, Columbia, Cambridge Judge, Berkeley and more, to design & deliver high-quality Executive Education Programs (Online, LIVE Virtual, In-Class, Blended). Till date, Emeritus has educated more than 250,000 individuals across 80 countries with a completion rate of 90%.

About Eduvos

Eduvos is one of South Africa's largest independent private higher education institutions with 12 campuses across the country. Eduvos educators believe in building skills for the future and enabling students to take up careers in a volatile, uncertain, chaotic, and ambiguous world. Their education is designed to create a deep understanding of an area, supporting skills development through practical application, and challenging thinking to allow for adaptation to new possibilities.